ONLY SLIGHT CHANGES MADE IN THE DECISION.

Claimants' Only Recourse Is to Ask for an Act of Congress Allowing Them Land at Appraisement.

World Washington Bureau.

WASHINGTON, D. C., APRIL 30. -THE SUPREME COURT TODAY, WITH ONLY SLIGHT CHANGES, AFFIRMED THE JUDGMENT OF THE COURT OF CLAIMS IN THE CHEROKEE NATIONA THESE CLAIMS HAVE BEEN PENDING FOR YEARS.

The above decision materially affeets many people in Tulsa and vicinity, who are intermarried citizens. The only recourse now left to the claimants is an act of Congress allowing them to take back the land involved, at government appraisement. This will be asked for at once, and it is the belief of all that it will be grant-
